Definitions and application

18.1 (1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires

“basic costs” has the meaning assigned to it by rule 18.15;

“certificate of costs” means a certificate signed by the Registrar stating the amount of costs recoverable by the receiving party who elects to receive basic costs under rule 18.15 or has costs taxed under rule 18.18;

“costs” includes an attorney-at-law’s charges and disbursements, basic costs, summarily assessed costs and taxed costs;

“Court” includes the Registrar;

“paying party” means a party liable to pay costs;

“receiving party” means a party entitled to be paid costs;

“summary assessment” means the procedure by which the Court when making an order about costs orders payment of a sum of money under rule 18.13 instead of taxation; and

“taxation” means the procedure by which the amount of costs is decided by the Registrar in accordance with this Part.

- (2) Orders for the payment of costs may be enforced in the same way as a judgment or order for the payment of a sum of money.

Orders for costs

- 18.2 The Court may make orders for costs of the proceedings giving rise to the appeal as well as the costs of the appeal.

Recovery of costs

- 18.3 A person may not recover the costs relating to an appeal from any other party or person except by virtue of-
 - (a) an order of the Court;
 - (b) a provision of these Rules; or
 - (c) an agreement between the parties.

Successful party generally entitled to costs

- 18.4 (1) If the Court decides to make an order for the costs of any proceedings, it shall order the unsuccessful party to pay the costs of the successful party.
- (2) The Court may notwithstanding sub-rule (1) order a successful party to pay all or part of the costs of an unsuccessful party or may make no order as to costs.
- (3) In deciding who should be liable to pay costs, the Court shall have regard to all the circumstances and in particular the Court shall have regard to-

 - (b) whether a party has succeeded on particular issues, even if that party has not been wholly successful in the appeal or proceedings;
 - (c) any offer to settle made by a party drawn to the Court’s attention;
 - (d) whether it was reasonable for a party
 - (i) to pursue a ground of appeal;

- (ii) to raise a particular issue;
 - (e) the manner in which a party has pursued-
 - (i) the appeal;
 - (ii) a ground of appeal;
 - (iii) a particular issue;
 - (f) whether an appellant who has succeeded in his appeal, exaggerated his claim.
- (4) This Rule gives the Court power, in particular, to order a party to pay-
- (a) costs from or until a certain date only;
 - (b) costs relating only to a distinct part of the appeal;
 - (c) only a specified proportion of another party's costs; and
 - (d) interest on costs from or until a certain date, including a date before judgment.
- (5) The Court may not make an order under sub-rule (4)(a) or (b) unless it is satisfied that an order under sub-rule (4)(c) would not be more practicable.
- (6) Where the Court orders a party to pay costs, it may make an interim order requiring the paying party to pay a fixed sum on account by a date stated in the order before the costs are taxed.
- (7) Where a party entitled to costs is also liable to pay costs, the Registrar may tax the costs which that party is liable to pay and either-
- (a) set off the amount taxed against the amount the party is entitled to be paid and direct the payment of any balance; or
 - (b) delay the issue of a certificate for the costs to which the party is entitled until the amount which that party is liable to pay is paid.

Two or more parties having the same interest

18.5 Where two or more parties having the same interest in relation to proceedings are separately represented, the Court may disallow more than one set of costs.

Duty of attorney-at-law to notify client

18.6 Where-

- (a) the Court makes an order for costs against a party; and
- (b) the party is not present when the order is made,

that party's attorney-at-law must notify his client in writing of the costs order no later than seven (7) days after the attorney receives notice of the order.

Costs where money is payable by or to a party who lacks legal capacity

18.7 (1) This Rule applies to any proceedings where a party lacks legal capacity and-

- (a) money is ordered or agreed to be paid to, or for the benefit of, that party; or

- (b) money is ordered to be paid by or on behalf of that party.
- (2) The Court shall order a taxation of the costs payable to his attorney-at-law by any party who lacks legal capacity.
- (3) On a taxation under sub-rule (2), the Registrar shall also tax any costs payable to that party in the proceedings, unless the Registrar has issued a default costs certificate in relation to those costs under rule 18.24.
- (4) Where -
 - (a) an appellant lacks legal capacity; and
 - (b) a taxation has taken place under sub-rule (2),the only amount payable by that appellant to his attorney-at-law is the amount which the Registrar certifies as payable.

Wasted costs orders

- 18.8 (1) In any proceedings the Court may by order -
- (a) direct the attorney-at-law to pay; or
 - (b) disallow as against the attorney-at-law's client the whole or part of any wasted costs.
- (2) "Wasted costs" means any costs incurred by a party -
- (a) as a result of any improper, unreasonable or negligent act or omission on the part of any attorney-at-law or any employee of such attorney-at-law; or

Procedure for wasted costs orders

- 18.9 (1) An application by a party for a wasted costs order shall-

- (4) The Registrar shall give seven (7) days' notice of the hearing of the application to the attorney-at-law against whom the order is sought and to all parties to the proceedings.

Basis of quantification

- 18.10 (1) Where the Court has a discretion as to the amount of costs to be allowed to a party, the sum to be allowed is the amount-
- (a) that the Court deems to be reasonable; and
 - (b) which appears to the Court to be fair, both to the person paying and the person receiving such costs.
- (2) Where the costs to be taxed are claimed by an attorney-at-law from his client, these costs are to be presumed-
- (a) to have been reasonably incurred if they were incurred with the express or implied consent of the client;
 - (b) to be reasonable in amount if their amount was expressly or impliedly approved by the client; and
 - (c) to have been unreasonably incurred if-
 - (i) of an unusual nature or amount; and
 - (ii) the attorney-at-law did not inform his client that the client might not recover them all from the other party.

CARIBBEAN COURT OF JUSTICE

PRACTICE DIRECTION

Citation of Judgments and Reported Cases

This practice direction has to do with:

- I. the identification and citation of judgments delivered by the Court; and
- II. the citation of reported cases to the Court.

I. IDENTIFICATION AND CITATION OF JUDGMENTS OF THE COURT

1. Judgments delivered by the Court shall be identified and cited in the following manner:
 - (a) the names (in italics) of the parties, followed by
 - (b) the year in which the judgment was delivered in square brackets, followed by
 - (c) the letters ‘CCJ’, followed by
 - (d) the number assigned to the judgment indicative of the place which the judgment occupies in the sequence, according to time of delivery, of judgments delivered by the Court in both jurisdictions in that year, followed by
 - (e) the letters ‘AJ’ or ‘OJ’ in round brackets depending on whether the judgment was delivered in the Court’s appellate jurisdiction ‘(AJ)’ or in its original jurisdiction ‘(OJ)’.

The following is an illustration of the results of applying the above directions to an imaginary case – Smith v Jones [2007] CCJ 28 (AJ)

2. The Registrar shall assign the appropriate number in keeping with paragraph 1 (d) above, to all judgments delivered by the Court in 2005 and 2006 as well as subsequently, and the form of neutral citation described above shall be used for all such judgments.

3. When a judgment of the Court which has been reported, is cited, the reference to the law report shall be preceded by the neutral citation of the judgment, but that citation need not be repeated if the judgment is referred to again in the same document.

4. In future when judgments are prepared for delivery or are issued as approved judgments, the pages of the judgments will not be numbered but the judgments shall be divided into numbered paragraphs. The numbering of these paragraphs will be continuous from the beginning of the first judgment to the end of the last, if there is more than one judgment. The paragraph numbers will be printed in the margin in square brackets. Not every indented paragraph, however, need be given a number, so that more than one indented paragraph may be treated as part of the same numbered paragraph.

5. When passages from judgments of the Court are referred to, they shall be identified by the number or numbers in square brackets of the relevant paragraph or paragraphs in which they occur. Accordingly, a reference to a passage in a judgment in the imaginary case used above by way of illustration, would read:

Smith v. Jones [2007] CCJ 28 (AJ) at [62]

II. CITATION OF REPORTED CASES TO THE COURT

The following instructions relate to the citation of cases in proceedings before the Court and the provision of copies of cases for use by the Court

1. Where a case is reported in the West Indian Reports, the reference to the case in that series of law reports should always be given and copies of the case in those reports should be provided to the Court.
2. Where the case is also reported in the official Law Reports produced by the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting of England and Wales ('the official Law Reports'), then the reference to the case in that series of law reports should also be given, but copies of the case in those reports need not be provided to the Court.
3. Where a case is reported both in the West Indian Reports and in some other series of law reports other than the official Law Reports, then no reference should be made to that other series of law reports and no copies of the case as reported in it need be provided to the Court.
4. Where a case is not reported in the West Indian Reports, but is reported in more than one series of law reports, then reference should be made to only one series of law reports and copies of the case in that series alone should be provided to the Court. The series of law reports to be used for reference and copying, shall be chosen in accordance with the following order of preference (in descending order):

- (i) The official Law Reports.
- (ii) The recognised law reports of the jurisdiction in which the case was decided.
- (iii) The Law Reports of the Commonwealth.
- (iv) The Weekly Law Reports.
- (v) The All England Reports and
- (vi) Other series of law reports.

This practice direction shall take effect from the date on which it is issued.

Issued by the President of the Caribbean Court of Justice pursuant to Part 17.1 of the Caribbean Court of Justice (Appellate Jurisdiction) Rules 2005 and Part 6.1 of the Caribbean Court of Justice (Original Jurisdiction) Rules 2006 on this 14th day of March 2007.
